In the case of foreign candidate the duration of the contract is 2 (two) years, renewable for equal period.

Requirements:

1. Title of PhD or Doctor, obtained in Brazil or in a foreign institution, in the field of Biological Anthropology or related areas, obtained at 2 (two) or more years;
2. Curriculum Vitae inscribed in the Plataforma Lattes of CNPq;
3. Experience in teaching and research in the field of Biological Anthropology /Physical Anthropology/Human Biology.

Documents Needed for Subscription:

1. Copy of identity card or passport;
2. Letter of presentation demonstrating academic affinity with the theme of the position;
3. Research project about the theme of the open position to be developed during the length of the contract;
4. Proof of titles indicated in the Curriculum Vitae/Lattes.

All documents and questions should be sent to the Graduate Program in Anthropology through the e-mail: ppgacampos@ufpa.br

SELECTION PROCEDURES

The selection of candidates will be conducted in two phases:

1. Eliminatory phase: analysis of the letter of presentation including the history of the candidate in the field of Biological Anthropology, and his or her possible contributions to research, teaching and extension in the Graduate Program in Anthropology.

2. Classificatory phase:

- a. Analysis of the research project in the field of Biological Anthropology considering: clarity in the definition of objectives and methodology about the relevant problem, and the possibility of execution during the duration of the contract. This phase has double weight in the classificatory mean;
- b. Analysis of the Curriculum Vitae/Lattes, with the scores written in the table of the Institute of Philosophy and Human Sciences (IFCH/UFPA), filled by the candidate, available at: <http://ifch.ufpa.br/images/documentos/documentos-ifch/TABELA-DE-PONTUACAO-DO-IFCH.pdf> . This phase has single weight in the classificatory mean.

FINAL CLASSIFICATION

The final classification will be given by the mean of the scores obtained in the classificatory phases, considering their specific weights.

GENERAL INFORMATION

The final result of the selection procedure will be made available by the Secretary of the Graduate Program in Anthropology by April 27, 2018, in the order of classification. If necessary the search committee may request complementary documentation.
